History of the Tenaja Chapter can be tracked back to San Gorgonio Lodge 298. The Tenaja Clan (as it was called in the early days) was formed in 1966. It split off from the Ta Tanka Clan when the Orange Empire Council formed the El Camino Real District.

In 1976, Woapalanne after being one of the original chapters in 1973 merged with Tenaja. They decided to take on the merged name of Tenaja. Woapalanne again split four years ago from Tenaja. In January of 2017, Woapalanne and Tenaja were told they would merge once again.

After much debate by the chiefs and their advisers, the name Woja was decided on. It was a literal merge of the two chapters. Woapalanne and Tenaja became WOJA. Now with colors and totems decided, we can flourish a new history in Wiatava Lodge.

So welcome Woja!

To Moms
(A late Mother’s Day Poem)

For all the times that I forgot to say “thank-you,”
For all the special, little things you do,
For all the words that sometimes go unspoken,
I need you say, “I love you, Mom… I do.

I love you for the way you stop and listen,
And for your kind support throughout the years,
For teaching me the meaning of compassion,
And sharing in my triumphs and my tears.

And, if at times, I may have seemed ungrateful,
I want to say, “I truly hope you see,
That nothing you have done has been forgotten,
And day by day you just mean more to me.”
