Crow Threw a BBQ!
Though it’s been a blazing hot summer, it didn’t stop the Crow Chapter from having their annual Crow BBQ. The location changed to the site of the La Habra Corn Festival, El Centro Park, which was a bit more comfortable. And as with the recent Ice Cream Social and LAN Party, we had a sizable group show up. We even ran out of hamburgers according to Burger Meister, Mr. Wolf, who was cranking them out, cheese or no cheese. We even offered a Crow Dog to a homeless guy, who looked like he hadn’t eaten in a week. We may be the OA, but we still Do A Good Turn Daily. Thanks to all who showed up and had a good time.

Crow Threw a BBQ?

As of now, the Pow Wow article is still in preparation. As our Wiatava Pow Wow is arguably one of our most popular and important events of the year, I would like to dedicate an entire Cog or at least one page to it. Sadly I did not receive enough articles from the weekend to put together such an awesome story… But YOU can help make sure that your chapter is represented in the Pow Wow Cog!

While many chapters have submitted for the fall quarter, some chapters still need to get in an article, so what better time than now? Send your pics and stories from this year’s Pow Wow. If your chapter wants credit, there are still 11 days left in September! Don’t wait!

Update From Cogman

As we all went home after NOAC this August, we were glad to be home and embrace our families. Few thought of our wonderful mascot Cogman, but I received word from him days after the event about his health.

Dear Wiatava Lodge,

This is Cogman, the best mascot ever. I would like to say it was a honor to represent you at NOAC. Even though I was brought down by Crow and Antelope, I did get injured, but nothing can stop me. I'll always be there for Wiatava Lodge. I hope to see all of you at Conclave. Have another great year Wiatava!

Cogman

I hope Cogman can recover and make it to NOAC in 2020.
