A Flock of Books

Fullerton Library has a book, magazine, cd and vinyl sale every year to clear out some extra inventory. The irony, is that most of the younger Arrowmen show up to help box up the leftovers, aren’t sure what books, magazines, cd's and vinyl’s are, technological times being what they are. But one of the perks of helping out, is snagging a portion of what hasn't been sold and taking it home for your very own. We had a good showing from Crow Chapter, so it was hard work in a short amount of time that lent itself to plenty of opportunities for cheerful service, which is what the Order of the Arrow is all about.

Nick showed restraint as he bid often, but didn't bid too high. He was what we call a bottom feeder - he ended up with more patches than anyone else. That is him bidding while everyone else was smiling for the picture.

However, by the time the live action was to start - most of the Arrowmen had very little money. The Woja bank (Mr. Taylor) was conflicted - should we give the boys more money or teach them a lesson in financial management?

The Order of the Arrow is the Boy Scout’s national honor society. While it is built on cheerful service and Brotherhood, one of the main aspects that keeps arrowmen coming back is Indian Affairs. Ceremonies, dancing, crafting, drumming, and much more are all very fun things to do. Think of how much harder your first Ordeal would have been if you were not inspired by the figures that spoke to you on that first night. The colorful costumes of the dancers, the steady beat of the drum as you are called out at Camp-o-ree. This is what makes the OA so special.

Good Ol’ Chapter Fun

Modoc Chapter hosted their first Co-Chapter Activity commemorating the first 5th Thursday of the 2018 year. On March 29th, Modoc and Crow Chapters descended on AMF Carter Bowl in Fullerton for an evening of bowling, food and fellowship. Youth Arrowmen from both Chapters racked up the points as Ian Heffernan from Modoc and Daniel Muleady from Crow scored several strikes throughout the evening. The Brotherhood enjoyed buffet style pizza, chicken tenders and a variety of soft drinks. Adult Arrowmen and Advisors enjoyed the food and the fellowship as well. Modoc plans to pursue future opportunities this year for Co-Chapter events with other Wiatava Lodge Chapters. Modoc extends its thanks to Michael Koh, Crow Chapter Chief, and the Crow Brotherhood for the fun evening and looks forward to more events with Crow.

For The Love of Placentia!

On April 28, Modoc participated in a service project called Love Placentia. We created no-sew blankets to give to the homeless in need. We arrived at about 8:15 am and were tasked with cutting the material to a certain length to make the blankets. Then we cut fringes and knitted them. It was fun and it gave people an opportunity to talk, work, and give back to the community at the same time. Soon after we had to leave, but I can assure you that the process of making the blankets was a lot more fun and rewarding. If the event happens again I am definitely going.
